

Explanation of Program Payments – Planting A Seed International (PASI)'s Liberia West Africa Fellowship Program

Financing the Liberia West Africa Fellowship Program is one of the most important parts of study abroad, and it can also be one of the most stressful. PASI encourages students to start planning EARLY.

PASI advises students to carefully review the following payment policies. In certain instances, a student's home institution may assume some or all of the program fees. PASI urges all students to discuss the following payment policies with their home institution before applying to study abroad.

Note: PASI reserves the right to accelerate the payment schedule below or require full payment with the application depending upon the date of application and the program start date.

PASI accepts the following payment methods:

Bank Draft/Wire Transfer (bank account and routing number needed/PLEASE SEE PAGE 2):

To get a bank draft, ask your bank or credit union for one. You can walk into a branch and get one from a teller, and you might be able to request drafts online. Your chances are best if you go through a bank that you currently have an account with: Most institutions only provide this service to customers. Upon completion of transfer, notify us of your transfer via email with a scanned copy of the receipt for both of our records.

Wire transfers are also accepted from the student's home institution (e.g. Financial Aid, President's Office, Study Abroad Office, etc).
